HATCHETITES TRIUMPH OVER CATHOLIC UNIV.

Revenge Former Defeat By 14-7 Win—O'Keefe and Ptak Individual Stars—Jerry Murphy Nearly Scores Long Drop Kick—Flying Cadets Opponents in Central Stadium Saturday.

HATCHETITES PRESENT SWEEPING OFFENSE AND STONE-WALL DEFENSE AGAINST RED AND BLACK.

Two long years of defeat by Catholic University were wiped out in one short hour of victory for George Washington University, Armistice Day, November 11, when the Hatchetites swept the Brooklanders off their feet 14-7. With a sweeping offense, a stonewall defense, and a wide-awake team, taking advantage of all their opponents' mistakes, it was a gala day for the Buff and Blue.

Charlie O'Keefe bore the brunt of the offense, while Jimmie Ptak was the pillar of strength on the defense. Captain Ptak kicked off to Captain Lynch to open hostilities, and the game was on.

G. W. took the ball on a short punt by C. U. O'Keefe fumbled and C. U. recovered. Two or three plays later a Brookland runner was tackled so viciously by Ptak that the ball trickled from his hands and Charlie O'Keefe, burning to retrieve himself, snatched the rolling leather and sped sixty yards to the enemy goal. Murphy added the point through a drop kick.

C. U.'s score came as the result of a long forward pass and a twelve yard run by Brennan, who dodged and broke four or five attempted tackles. The Red and Black added the extra point by a drop kick.

After the kickoff O'Keefe intercepted a heavy intended for Lynch and carried it to the C. U. twenty yard mark. Ptak carried the ball fifteen yards on a clever pass from Murphy. C. U. received a penalty for unnecessary roughness, and it was first down on the two yard mark. O'Keefe fumbled on the third down and the Brooklanders recovered. Lynch dropped back to punt, but the pass was bad and he attempted to run the ball out only to be tackled by Curran with such vigor that the ball slipped from his grasp and Ptak dropped on the sphere for the winning point. Jerry Murphy made it fourteen with a drop kick.

G. W. threatened again in the third quarter when Murphy attempted a drop-kick from a difficult angle on the forty yard mark, and the ball missed the uprights by a narrow margin.

All Eleven Men Fight.

The entire Buff and Blue team played good football, but it was O'Keefe and Murphy on offense and Ptak and Corbin on defense who showed especially well.

Catholic University attempted eighteen passes and were only successful in five cases, while the Hatchetites tried six times, making good with five heaves. Murphy and O'Keefe easily outpointed Lynch of Brookland, who had three of his kicks blocked, one being responsible for a touchdown. Another which was blocked by Corbin should have resulted in a score for G. W., but was recovered by a C. U. man and the referee ruled it a touch-back instead of a safety, depriving the Buff and Blue of two points. Each side made seven first downs.

REVENGE IS SWEET.

MINOR SPORTS UNCHANGED

Owing to a slight misunderstanding, the University Hatchet printed in the last issue that certain sports now listed as minor sports had been changed to major sports. It should be stated that this matter was laid before the Student Council and that definite action would be taken at the next meeting of the Student Council on Tuesday, November 21.

COUNTRY FAIR TO BE EVENT OF WEEK

An Old Time Show Will Be Presented.

TICKETS SOLD AT DOOR.

Cheer Practice and Talks on the Pledge Drive Featured.

Gypsies, snake charmers, magic, songs, and dances, all to be presented to you at the County Fair to night at 8.15 p. m. The Chapel is the place.

Tickets will be sold at the door. Calro Magic, the first vaudeville act, will be shown at 8.30. This promises to be mysterious—remember the wild tales you have heard of the Nile? Following this at various intervals will be shown: (2) Meek but Wild, Meek but Wild, the story of a Farmer's Child. (3) A number by Winifred De Voe. (4) Pi Beta Phi show. (5) The Gypsies' Plea. (6) Soff O'More's Song Birds, directed by Alice Heyl.

At 8.20 is the first performance of "Uncertain Silas," in Room 1. With Silas as Lucy Proctor, Ma Sweet as Annette Steele, Susan Sweet as Allie Rector, Ysobel Le Ciard as Dorothy Overstreet, and the whole to be directed by Theresa Laurence, it can easily be seen that this will be an excellent display of the best histrionic ability.

Walter F. Stokes, the rifle champion of the world, is to conduct a shooting match. This to be held in the gallery. Attention, all! A beautiful silver loving cup will be awarded to the one who makes the highest score. Here is an opportunity to challenge your enemies as well as your friends.

Two palmists to tell you of your dark past and your gay future are a Persian and a Russian palmist. They will be under the gallery. The snake charmer, Madame Serpentina, will be found closeted in Miss Watkins' Room. Faint hearts had better not enter this den.

In the Chapel will be a bucket for you to demonstrate your skill, and pitch a ball into it. Don't miss the swimming match in room 22, conducted by Bee Woodford. Beware of the wandering gypsies and a trobadour on the Fair Grounds.

At 10.30 J. Foster Hagan will make a short speech about Student Activities. The orchestra will play a number of G. W. U. songs. This will be followed by cheers led by the cheer leaders for the game with V. M. I. Saturday.

Virginia Reel, for all at the end of the evening. This will bring the County Fair to an appropriate close.

The booths in the Chapel are: Chi Omega—Cake. Sigma Kappa—Candy. Phi Mu—Punch. Alpha Delta Pi—Hot Dogs. Delta Zeta—Baby Show. Gamma Beta Pi—Hot Chocolate. Gamma Delta Rho—Peanuts and Popcorn. Phi Sigma—Ice Cream. Phi Lambda Mu—Sandwiches. Students Activities' Booth, Y. W. C. A. Booth, Miscellaneous Y. W. C. A. Information.

To all who will apply for the positions of barkers and auctioneers there will be given a pass to any of the main moving picture houses.

SENIORS MEET NOV. 23

Bernard Viens, president of the Senior Class of Columbian College, has called a meeting of the Senior Class to discuss activities for the year, next Friday, November the 23rd, in Lisner Hall Chapel, at 8 p. m.

Owing to the length of time taken for the election of officers at the last meeting, no plans for the year could be made then, so every Senior is expected to be out Friday night, and to bring suggestions for a real year of activities. Plans for a Senior mixer, Senior dance, and as many other affairs as possible are to be made, and a committee appointed for the class rings.

THREE THOUSAND G. W. STUDENTS TAKE NOTE

The Student Activity Pledge supports all George Washington University activities. The more signers, the greater the scope of the activities. To date nine hundred have signed. Thirty-two hundred have failed or refused to sign. You are among the thirty-two hundred.

You expect to receive certain benefits from your study at George Washington. These benefits will be greatly enhanced by a more comprehensive system of activities. It is plainly to your advantage to enroll with the nine hundred who have signed.

You receive material reward from the Pledge. In addition, you join yourself with a loyal body of students, whose interest in G. W. is not restricted by a selfish consideration.

You do not represent George Washington unless you aid her activities. You are here called upon to lend your assistance. The University depends on you—it calls for your enthusiasm in her endeavors.

Sign the Student Activity Pledge!

HOP OF HOPS COMING; TICKETS NOW ON SALE

City Club Scene of Annual Football Festival on December 8.

Tickets are on sale for the Hop of Hops!

Absolutely the hop of hops. The boys in blue and brass, who hang out down on the Chesapeake, put on the fancy dances. All the ladies in, around, near, or adjacent to Washington, board the W. B. & A. to take in the parties. But the cadets will have to spring some new ones to beat George Washington's Football Hop.

This dance, to honor the boys who beat the C. U. bunch, will be held at the City Club on Friday night, the eighth of next month. It's to be a regular celebration. Meyer Davis will appear at 10 p. m. with eight of his drums and horns all polished up to pass out the "Hot Lips" and the rest of his jazzy stuff. He will perform until 1 a. m. Precisely at one the famous "Le Paradis" Orchestra will gather to play until two. With the pep that regularly arrives about 1 a. m. and with the famed band of honied music, the dance will turn into a celebration, carnival, and festival, all in one.

Programs will be given out to all attending. Cute programs, maybe lil' cardboard folders of cerise, with a picture on the cover. At some stage of the proceedings the letters and sweaters will be awarded to the football team, with all the gusto and ceremony necessary.

Tickets are on sale now. They retail at three dollars each, with stags paying two for the privilege to make the dance, "O! So much more interesting!" The sale of tickets is limited, and when the number sold reaches a limit, no more will be passed out. Buy your tickets early for this Hop of Hops.

FIRST MIXER OF YEAR WILL BE GIVEN BY SOPHS

Dancing Will Start at Nine—Other Excitement Promised.

Sophomores of Columbian College are to break into the social life of the University when they hold the Sophomore Mixer in the Chapel of Lisner Hall, Friday evening, November 24. The Soph Social Committee is now formulating plans to make this the best dance ever held by any second year class.

Last year this dance was quite exciting, due to the efforts of a delegation of Freshmen. Ripe eggs, Irish confetti, and other missiles were prominent. Whatever the Freshmen of this year are planning the Sophs say that they will be well prepared to meet all onslaughts.

"I expect every Sophomore in Columbian College to come to the Mixer," said Albert Foley, president of the Class. "We want to make the biggest mixer ever held in the University. Students from all the classes are invited, including the Freshmen, if they care to, or rather have nerve enough to."

Dancing will start at 9 p. m. Tickets will be sold before the mixer. The admission will be 50 cents per couple. Special features are promised.

GIRL SWIMMERS' PLANS ARE WELL UNDER WAY

First Meet Against Trinity in a Few Weeks—Entire Team to Participate.

With the appointment of a manager last week the girls' swimming team has gotten a real start on the events of the year. The new manager, Anne Hof, wishes to announce to all girls interested in swimming that the Y. W. C. A. pool has been secured for practice on Saturday evenings, and that there are prospects of getting the much larger Central High School pool for other evenings.

The first meet of the year in which George Washington will compete is to be held at Trinity College at the end of this month or the beginning of next. It is a life-saving contest, given for all swimming organizations, and the George Washington girls will encounter some stiff opposition. The whole team of fifteen girls will compete.

JUNIORS WILL OFFICIALLY EXTEND WELCOME TO FROSH

Reception To Be Held in Chapel Next Wednesday Evening.

The Junior Class will officially welcome the Freshmen at a reception in the Chapel of Lisner Hall on next Wednesday evening, November 22, beginning at 8.30 p. m.

The program of the evening includes short speeches by members of the faculty and student body, relative to the administration and support of Student Activities. President Howard Lincoln Hodgkins has been invited to give the official university welcome to the Freshmen. The managers and editors of the various activities will explain the mysteries of their particular interests, and J. Foster Hagan, chairman of the Student Council Pledge Committee, will address the meeting to urge support for the activities through participation in the Student Pledge.

The speeches will be very short to allow time for the three-piece orchestra to furnish music for the dancing.

The Junior Class extends an urgent invitation for all Freshmen in the University to be present to accept the handshakes and music.

LOCK HOOKS SAVE COATS

Owing to the fact that a number of overcoats have been stolen from the halls of the University, a number of lock hooks have been installed in the first-floor corridors and more have been ordered. The lock has a disc-like key. When you put your coat on the hook, lock and take the key with you. But when you take your coat out be sure to leave the key in the lock so the next person can use it. President Hodgkins urges all students to use them and eliminate the risk of loss.

G. W. 14—C. U. 7

After an unusually discouraging season the G. W. football team vindicated itself by defeating Catholic University, its ancient rival, with a score of 14—7. Vindicated itself not only in the eyes of the general public, but also, and what is more important, in the eyes of the student body. Ptak and O'Keefe were easily the individual stars of the contest, but the whole team played a splendid game, and too much praise can not be given the players for what they did for their school and the general morale of student activities.

This victory brings up a question that should be settled immediately by those who have charge of the arranging of the schedule for 1923. Teams of the caliber of Catholic University and Gallaudet are the type that should be scheduled, and not such powerful elevens as Bethany or the University of Virginia. George Washington can not hope to send an aggregation onto the field strong enough to humble teams like those. Constant defeat weakens, and in the end destroys, the confidence of the team and greatly lessens its chances when it faces those who are its equals.

A Wise Move

Considerable protest has been raised against the recent decree of the Student Council, which declared the Fall Council elections not valid, because sufficient votes to have made it legal were not cast. It is well. Maybe we will have some real "school spirit" now outside of the confines of the activities themselves.

When one stops to consider that election to the Student Council is one of the highest honors a man can receive aside from scholastic tributes, it seems incredible that the men running and those supporting the candidates did not take enough interest in the outcome of the election to get more than one-fiftieth of the enrollment of the school to vote.

Now, the students have a chance to vindicate themselves. If they obtain petitions signed by ten per cent of the students enrolled in the college they wish to represent and then get that ten per cent to vote for them, they will be allowed to sit in the council.

Dramatics at G. W.

Last year an attempt was made to produce a musical comedy, but the project was a failure because of the time necessary to train the cast of such a production. The book was good, the cast included some of the best talent in the University, those in charge were capable of making such a show successful, but it would have taken at least three months to have prepared that comedy for its first showing. Interest in such enterprises is not intense enough here to continue monotonous training for such a lengthy period.

This is no reason, however, why G. W. should not have dramatics again. The type of production that would be successful here is the short one or two-act play, requiring only a small cast and entailing only a small cost. There are enough students who are interested in this line of student activity to adequately fill the cast of a show of this character, and the time of training is not long enough for it to become irksome.

Secretary-treasurer of Student Council. Member of Gamma Beta Pi Sorority.

THE SPY

Garrick.

Henrietta Crosman returns to the stage after several years' absence, when she comes to the Garrick next week in Alan Dale's new comedy, "Nobody's Fool." Mr. Dale has written into this play the elements which he as a dramatic critic thinks a good comedy should contain. Miss Crosman portrays the role of a diplomatic mother who rules the family without their realizing it, and gives the stage an entirely new type of mother. Written by Dale and acted by Crosman this play has good references and should provide an entertaining evening.

President.

The President Players hold over Jane Cowl's success, "Smilin' Through." The play concerns the love of two young people who are held apart by the hatred of an old man, and how love wins out provides the action of the play. Henry Duffy and Elleen Wilson are doing excellent work in the leading roles and are well supported by the rest of the capable company.

National and Pol's.

It will be welcome news to Washington theatergoers that the two major houses will present an entirely renovated appearance to audiences about the first of December. Manager Fowler of the National, says that his house will open its doors on the 27th and Manager Craerlin of Pol's, assures us that his theater will be ready at the same time. It's good news, for Washington needs them.

This Week.

President Players at the President in "Smilin' Through." Henry, Elleen and Company making them laugh and cry in their beautiful theater. Best thing they have done yet and a wholly enjoyable performance. Approved.

Garrick: O. P. Heggie doing some wonderful acting in Ferenc Molnar's "Fashions for Men." Philosophical drama with comedy touches and enlightened by the superb Heggie, who is well supported. By far the best thing done here this season. Do not miss it if you enjoy real drama superbly presented.

IPSE DIXIT and GALILEO

There was much learning but little real knowledge in Galileo's time (1564-1642). Aristotle was swallowed in bad Latin translations. Ipse dixit. No one checked him by what seemed vulgar, coarse experiment.

Galileo fought against the dead hand of tradition. He did not argue about Aristotle, but put him to the test. Aristotle led his readers to believe that of two bodies the heavier will fall the faster. Galileo simply climbed to the top of the Leaning Tower of Pisa and dropped two unequal weights. The "best people" were horrified; they even refused to believe the result—that the weights reached the ground in equal times.

"Look at the world, and experiment, experiment," cried Galileo.

The biggest man in the 16th century was not Galileo in popular estimation, but Suleiman the Magnificent, the Ottoman Emperor, who swept through Eastern Europe with fire and sword and almost captured Vienna. Where is his magnificence now?

Galileo gave us science—established the paramount right of experimental evidence. Suleiman did little to help the world.

Hardly an experiment is made in modern science which does not apply Galileo's results. When, for instance, the physicists in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company study the motions of electrons in rarified atmospheres, or experiment to heighten the efficiency of generators and motors, they follow Galileo's example and substitute facts for beliefs.

THETA DELTA CHI DOWNS SIGMA NU IN CLOSE GAME

S. P. E. Takes Practice Tilt From Sigma Chi—Great Interest in Contests Shown By Fraternities.

Delta Tau Delta five nosed out the Sigma Alpha Epsilon team and the Phi Sigma Kappa's trounced the Sigma Chi's, on Thursday evening, November 9, in the Center Market Auditorium to open the Interfraternity Basketball League.

The first contest was hard fought from beginning to end, and when the final whistle was blown the score stood 11 to 10 in favor of the "Deltas." Colburn was the individual star of the game, and he contributed all of D. T. D.'s points, scoring two floor goals and seven free throws out of eleven attempts. Newby and Stephens also put up good games for their respective teams.

The line-up and summary:

|----------------|----------------|
| D. T. D. (11). | S. A. E. (10). |
| Colburn | L. F. Stephens |
| Bradley | R. F. Whyte |
| Nichols | C. Hillard |
| Mooney | L. G. Cooper |
| Newby | R. G. Potter |

Substitutions: Delta Tau Delta, Sawyer for Bradley. Floor goals: Colburn 2, Whyte 1, Stevens 1, Potter 1. Foul goals: Colburn 7 out of 11, Whyte 4 out of 6, Stevens 0 out of 2. Referee Daily. Umpire Springston. Time of quarters, 7 minutes each.

Outclass Sigma Chi.

The second contest in which the Phi Sigma Kappa team won from the Sigma Chi combination by the score of 15 to 6, was fast and hard fought, but the caliber of playing was below that of the first game. Vernon played a good game at forward for the winners and tossed in four two-pointers. Rutley's and Miller's work also stood out prominently.

The line-up and summary:

|----------------|---------------|
| P. S. K. (15). | S. C. (6). |
| Rutley | L. F. Miller |
| Vernon | R. F. Stewart |
| Klopsch | C. Heckert |
| Van Endy | L. G. Beattie |
| Walters | R. G. Sheritz |

Floor goals: Vernon 4, Rutley 1, Walters 1, Miller 1, Beattie 1. Foul goals: Klopsch 3 out of 12, Heckert 1 out of 5, Beattie 1 out of 4. Referee Daily. Umpire Springston. Time of quarters, 7 minutes each.

Theta Delta Chi Win.

The fight for leading honors in the Fraternity Basketball League was resumed last Monday evening, November 13, when Theta Delta Chi trimmed the Sigma Nu team by the score of 13 to 9. The battle was close throughout the first half, the score standing 7 to 5 in favor of the "Theta Deltas," and the two teams continued to keep on even terms until the fourth quarter, when a basket by Brown and another by Briggs "put the game on ice" for Theta Delta Chi.

Line-up and summary:

|----------------|----------------|
| T. D. C. (13). | S. N. (9). |
| Beeton | L. F. Hand |
| Curtin | R. F. St. John |
| Brown | C. Everett |
| Pledger | L. G. Searl |
| Fisher | R. G. Murphy |

Substitutions: Theta Delta Chi, Briggs for Curtin; Sigma Nu, Foley for St. John, Laux for Murphy, Murphy for Hand, Feather for Searl, Laux for Everett. Floor goals, Brown 2, Curtin 1, Briggs 1, Beeton 1, Hand 1, St. John 1. Foul goals, Beeton 3 out of 6, Everett 4 out of 7, Searl 1 out of 1. Referee Daily. Umpire Springston. Time of quarters, 7 minutes each.

The other regular scheduled contest was not played, but Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Chi played a practice tilt, and it was not until an extra five-minute period was added to the game before S. P. E. emerged the winner by the score of 12 to 10. Butler's basket in the extra period broke the tie.

Great Interest Shown.

Judging from the games played to date it seems as though the fraternity league will pass a successful season. A great deal of interest in the contests is being shown by the Greek letter society men and other students at G. W. These games afford an excellent opportunity for the coach and managers to get a line on some good material for the Varsity and develop the players at the same time.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT ARCHITECTS' MEETING

At a meeting of the Architectural Club, November 6, the following officers were elected:

Leon Chatelain, president; Melvin C. Hobson, vice president; L. S. Keefe, treasurer; and Katherine Hough, secretary.

Plans of the club for the ensuing year include one or more dances, and addresses before the club by prominent architects. The club will strive for better accommodations for the architectural students, for in spite of the new quarters the drafting room is crowded.

Pick Ups

How many twins has G. W. U.? Stephens College of Missouri is the "official college for twine." Recently there was one of the 18 pairs of twins there who wanted to attend a football game that conflicted with a class. She attended the game and sent her twin sister to class. The plan worked perfectly.

At the Hallowe'en dance of the University of Vermont there were moonlight waiters and ev'rything. The drummer nearly broke his neck watching one couple in a moonlight dance, and every other dance.

Swarthmore recently celebrated its fifty-third birthday. Students and alumni joined in tribute to their college founders.

Vassar: "Oh, dear, I just can't adjust my curriculum."
Yale: "That's all right. It doesn't show any."

Students of Emory University have adopted walking canes as a part of the dress of a Senior. Probably due to the fact that they can't stand their dignity.

The students of "Ole" Mississippi have presented the Athletic Association with blankets for the use of the athletic teams.

The Johns Hopkins "News Letter" publishes a list of nine men out of a class of 250 who did not attend the Virginia game. These nine men have been asked to explain their absence to the Pep Committee. That's the stuff that leads to school spirit.

FREE LANCE CLUB REFUSES TO JOIN I. W. W.

The Free Lance Club was addressed on Wednesday, November 8, by L. C. Manning, a "radical" I. W. W., who has recently completed a five-year course in conservatism at Leavenworth. The effects of the Government's education upon the speaker were clearly evident, both in his broken health and his compromised ideals.

The subject discussed was "Amnesty for political prisoners." Mr. Manning described the work which has already been done for amnesty by some of the leading church organizations of the country, and appealed to the youth of America to do their utmost. Yet members of the Free Lance Club were surprised by the reactionary character of the lecture. While they expected to hear a rabid revolutionist, they were confronted by a common-sense progressive. The speaker made such statements as these: "The masses are unfit to rule," "Government should be in the hands of a few," "Judge Gary is a valuable and important man." Mr. Manning also said that the college "intellectuals" are far more radical than most labor organizers. In handling the radicals he suggested that the Government's course should be like that of the English policeman, who said, "Rather let them blow huff than blow hup."

In conclusion the club was invited to take part in the I. W. W. Armistice Day demonstration, but the members did not turn out either en masse nor as individuals.

JUNIOR ENGINEERS ELECT

The Junior Engineers held their class election Thursday evening, November 8, 1922, in Lisner Hall. The following officers were elected:

Charles Jones, president.
Charley Burner, vice president.
Louise Strother, secretary.
Mead Hammond, treasurer.
Cliff Whyte, sergeant at arms.

Plans were discussed for the coming year, and a committee was appointed to cooperate with the Juniors of the other departments to make this one of the biggest years in the history of the school.

ANOTHER SENSATION

J. Fuller Spoerri was the center of an admiring group last Saturday. Nothing unusual in that, but interest was added by the fact that the person in question was standing in front of the White House holding a big banner reading "Amnesty to Political Prisoners."

PUBLICATIONS DANCE NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

All Students Invited, Where Cub Reporters Frolic With Editors.

Pen pushers, hunt and peck typists, and pseudo journalists, will throw aside all the dull cares of newspaper publishing and give an ear to "jazz" at the Thanksgiving Dance of the staff of the University Hatchet at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House, Saturday evening, November 25.

During 1921-22 the Hatchet staff held a number of dances, which were all successful, according to those who attended them. They are given at the various fraternity houses in order to infuse into them an amount of school atmosphere.

"The purpose of this dance is to gather together the members of the staff at a social function in order that they may grow to know each other better, and also, I hope, become closer in friendship. That is the spirit that will make for a bigger, better Hatchet. But I do not wish to exclude the other students of the University; on the other hand, I heartily invite them to come," said Robert M. Bolton, editor of the Hatchet.

Douglas Clephane, Marian Barker, and Dorothy V. Bartley have been put in charge of the sale of the tickets. Admission will be one dollar and a half per couple.

JUNIOR TEACHERS ELECT

Juniors of Teachers College at their meeting Wednesday, November 15, elected officers for the coming year:

Lydia Shepperd, president; Marie Turner, vice president; Marie Moffet, secretary; and Dorothy Lewis, treasurer.

REMEMBER THESE TOMORROW

In order that the student body may appear to better advantage as supporters of the team a 20-minute cheer practice will be held in Columbian College at 12.15 Saturday, November 18. All students in Columbian College are urged to be there and to practice the yells for the game at 2.30. The yells selected are as follows:

Locomotive Yell:

G-E-O-R-G-E,
G-E-O-R-G-E,
G-E-O-R-G-E,
George Washington

U-rah:

U-rah-rah-rah
G-double U rah
U-rah-rah-rah
G-double U rah
U-rah-rah-rah
G-double U rah
TEAM! TEAM! TEAM!

Go, G. W.:

Go, G. W., go
Go, G. W., go
Hit 'em high, hit 'em low.

One song will be practiced, the chorus of "The Buff and Blue." For when old G double U is losing ground, and they're far from victory, for miles around our cheering will resound, the team will hear our plea, then our backs will circle 'round the ends, our line will plunge straight thru, Amid cheers and din, the Buff and Blue will win, we'll have a touchdown for G double U.

GATE AND KEY HONORARY SOCIETY FORMED AT G. W.

In all the leading universities there are usually one or more honorary organizations from which all students strive to win recognition. George Washington University has now taken its place among those universities, as there has been established an honorary organization which will be known as "Gate and Key." The main object and purposes of the organization will be to promote the interests and ideals of the University, and to foster all student activities for the welfare of the University. The personnel of the organization will truly represent those who have the interests of the University at heart and who take an active part in making possible the existence and success of all events that go to up-build the University within and without.

The colors of Gate and Key are black and white, now marking the following students who have been duly inducted into the organization:

Verne P. Simmons, Donald M. Little, Robert Colfesh, James H. Duggan, Jr., Stanley R. Wright, Albert Hillix, Edwin A. Loop, Howard Shaw, Richard McPherson, Fred M. Bradley, Ermit Peterson, Ernest W. Stephens.

In the next issue of the Hatchet the Gate and Key will announce the pledging of several new members, and great interest is being taken about the school as to whom this honor will go. Following the pledging of these men a dance will be given next Thursday evening in honor of the new members.

"MORE MEN NEEDED FOR GLEE CLUB," SAYS FLY

The Men's Glee Club is steadily growing in membership, and the work of the club is going forward by rapid strides under the direction of Mr. Mueller, chief director and organist of the First Congregational Church.

The Club Library is replete with excellent concert numbers: to be sung by the entire club, and several soloists, a quartette, and special features are promised for the opening concert. Graham Fly, president, says: "The one big need of the club is for more men in the first tenor section, and it is urged that any man who has had past experience on this part, affiliate himself with us immediately." In most of the numbers being used this year the lead or tune lies in the first tenor, which makes that part the easiest of the four to learn.

Practice is held on Thursday evening of each week at 8.30 in Mr. Mueller's Studio, which faces on Tenth St. between G and H Sts. N. W. Any member of the club will give information relative to a new man joining.

JOURNALISTIC FRAT INITIATES TWO MEMBERS

Two Years Work on Publications Staff Required for Eligibility.

At a meeting of Pi Delta Epsilon in Lisner Hall on November 1st, two neophytes who have penned their way to eligibility, braved the perils of the proverbial goat ride and accompanying rites and mysteries of initiation and have taken their places in the ranks of the journalists as brother Greeks. They are Harry Wright Newman and J. Foster Hagan, both prominent students of G. W. U.

"In accordance with a ruling of the Fraternity," said Melville Walker, president of Pi Delta Epsilon, "no student is eligible to membership until he has completed two years' work on the editorial or business staff of one or more of the University publications. Apropos of this, there will be no pledging until the beginning of the second semester, as no members of publications staffs will have qualified until that time."

Pi Delta Epsilon will hold its next meeting on November 22nd. At that time Bryan Morse, director of Student Activities, and Daniel C. Chace, professor of Journalism in the University, will be initiated as honorary members.
